Gentlemen

I am just in receipt of your registered letter containing 5 Mormon Coins & 1 Bechtler Coin total 6 coins I am not familiar with the prices on Mormon Coins if I would not have made the low bid I made in last sent you to day the prices are too steep for me as is the price on the Bechtler $5 I return them to day by registered letter & thank you very much for taking the trouble to send them I also inclose 12¢ postage covering the cost of sending same thanking you again for your promptness

Remain yours truly
H. T. Lezinsky

Kindly notify me by postal of receipt of the letter also of check for $27 1/2 for the $5 piece yours H. T. L.

Gentlemen

I received your letter this p.m. & replied per Postal at the Post Office & after going home I examined the Envelope & every scrap of paper that came with the Coins & could find no check the 2 coins were in a small envelope (each) & they together with the bill for same were in a regular envelope addressed to me (& Repeated) & properly sealed together with 3 Wax Seals, consequently the check was not inclosed & the envelope was not tampered with, probably it was sent elsewhere & trust you will hear of it soon, as I wrote in postal you can send another I mark ^{check} duplicate, in regard to the 2 gold dollars will pay. I sent them to you to put value on same & make me offer, as I have every confidence in you & feel that you will always treat me right, our past dealings have always been pleasant & satisfactory to me. if I cannot get $35^{to}$40⁰⁰ for both I do not care to sell. I can dispose of them to a party here & if you cannot allow me the above for both kindly return same. I received the 3 catalogues yesterday. shall I make check out less the $20⁰⁰ or shall I mail for $20⁰⁰ check & recieve check for the full amount

Gentlemen,
Yours to hand. Have 225 pieces but want another just now.
Have been away from home for 3 months. I would be pleased to receive catalogues & will bid if there is anything I want, am only interested in Gold Coins, especially Territorial with heat waves.
